ALONG THE WAY

EUFULA NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE- EUFAULA

536 AL-165, Eufaula, AL 36027 www.fws.gov/refuge/eufaula
The Eufaula National Wildlife Refuge protects and provides a habitat for many of the areas threatened/endangered species while offering a host of recreational activities for visitors. You will find diverse wildlife and habitats at the refuge along the walking trails. Also a great fishing spot.

FENDALL HALL- EUFAULA

917 W Barbour St, Eufaula, AL 36027 www.fendallhall.weebly.com
Fendall Hall is one of Eufaula's many historical sites. Visitors will be able to see one of the most outstanding examples of Italianate architecture in the entire state. The structure has amazing features such as its ornate exterior form as well as the elaborate wall and ceiling murals in the parlor, entrance hall, and dining room. Much of the interior has been restored to include pieces which reflect how the house was furnished in the late 1800s.

JOHNSON CENTER FOR THE ARTS- TROY

300 E Walnut St, Troy, AL 36081 www.johnsoncenterarts.org
Housed in Troy's classic-revival style post office building which dates back to the early 1900s, Johnson Center for the Arts is home to several galleries which showcase artworks from Alabama creatives. This relaxed space, set over two floors, allows visitors to browse artwork from local artists at their own pace. Exhibitions change frequently, around every six weeks, so you can visit more than once and never see the same art.

PIONEER MUSEUM OF ALABAMA- TROY

248 US-231, Troy, AL 36081 www.pioneer-museum.org
The interactive museum opened in 1971, when hundreds of locals came together to try and preserve a disappearing heritage. You can walk around the perimeter to explore sugar cane processing mills, a grist mill, rustic church and a covered bridge, and if you're into old trains, there's even an 1800s steam locomotive lying around. Inside demonstration cabins you can experience old country store shopping, visit a working blacksmith's shop, and a pioneering kitchen where cornbread is made.

THE RED DOOR THEATRE- UNION SPRINGS

101 N Prairie St, Union Springs, AL 36089 www.reddoortheatre.org
The Red Door Theatre offers an enchanting opportunity to visit a small Southern town while taking in a professional theatrical performance. The Red Door quickly established an outstanding reputation as a quality regional theatre, offering audiences the opportunity to experience entertaining productions in an intimate 144-seat setting. Four productions with optional dinners are presented annually.

WE PIDDLER AROUND THEATER- BRUNDIDGE

102 N Main Street, Brundidge, AL 36010 www.piddler.org
The We Piddler Around Theater is housed in the former Brundidge City Hall which was built in 1940 as a Works Project Administration project. The WPA workers gained the reputation, rightly or wrongly so, of folks just "piddling around". The theater is home to Alabama's Official Folklife Play, 'Come Home, It's Suppertime' and the annual Pike Piddlers Storytelling Festival.

MURALS ON MAIN- UNION SPRINGS

302 N. Prairie St, Union Springs, AL 36089 www.unionspringsalabama.com/murals/
Five impressive murals throughout the town that depict artistic reflections of local landmarks and events, both past and present, painted by renowned artist Wes Hardin. Designs include Hank Williams, Eddie Kendricks and Bird Dog Field Trials.
